Tiner, Belton

A black and white photograph of a modern high school building. The building features a dark brick section on the left and a light-colored brick section on the right. A large, multi-paned window is situated between the two brick sections. The words "BELTON HIGH SCHOOL" are mounted on the light brick wall in a large, serif font. A concrete walkway leads to a set of steps on the right side of the building. The foreground is covered in grass.

BELTON
SCHOOL

The sands of time have sifted through the hourglass of life to an extent that soon it will be time for us, the students of Belton High School, to establish a place in the world. We are the generation of a space age. Through the years the teachers and books have only been aids--the actual learning has been left to the individual. As we enter the space ship of life, may we grow in the light of building strong character. May the hands of time never stop until our goals have been reached. With each passing minute, may our education progress until with each job done our reward will be a feeling of accomplishment.

With this thought, "a time to every purpose under heaven," the Belton High School Annual Staff presents the 1967 LAIR.

The Band Banquet Was the Highlight of the Year

The Seniors Looked Forward to Their Graduation.

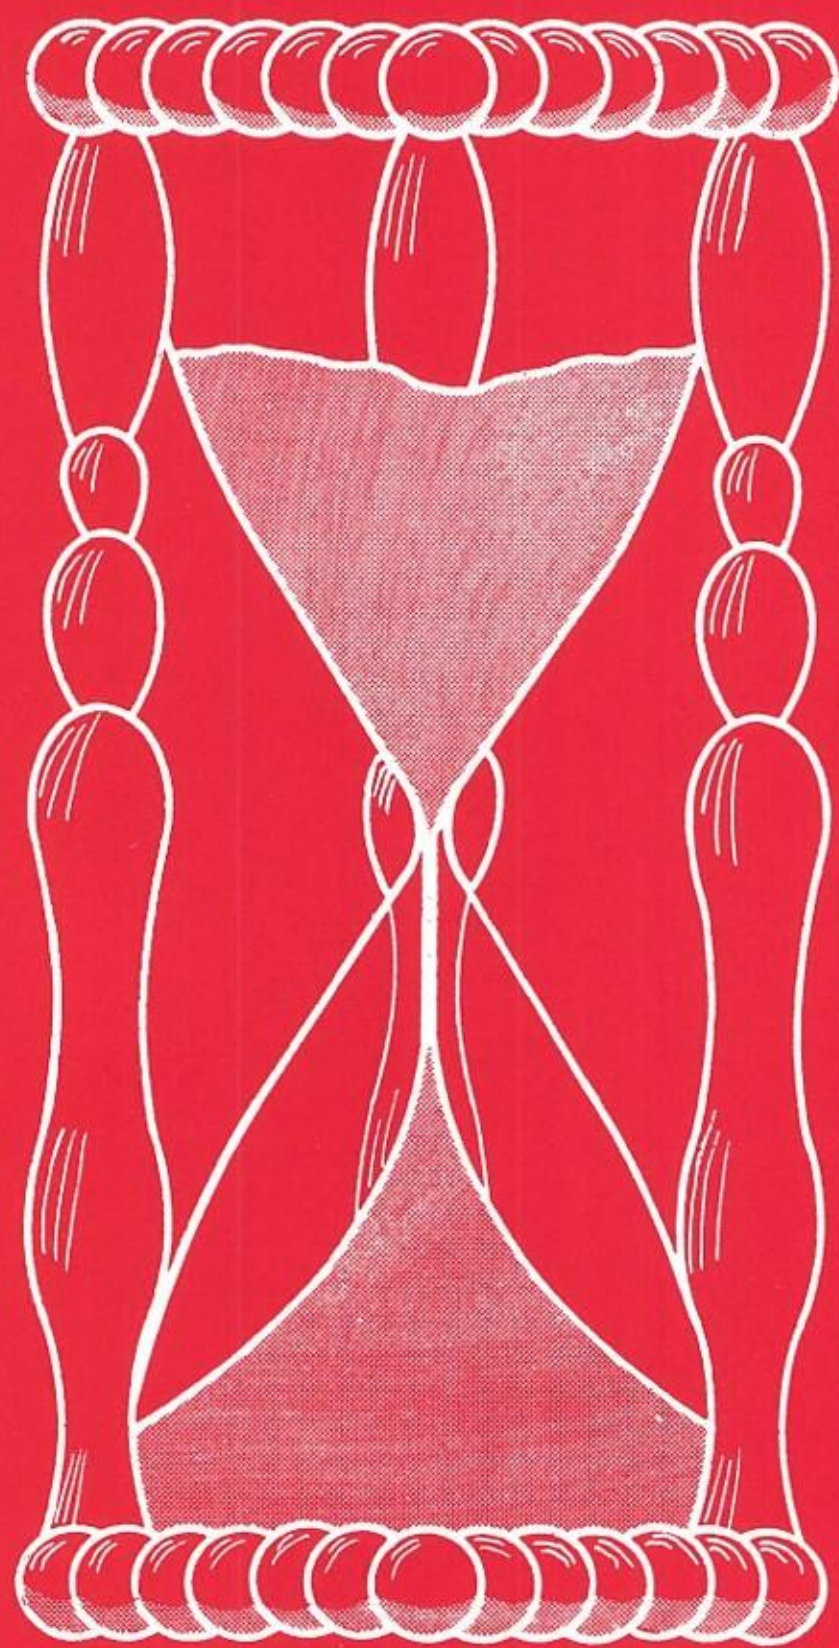

Last year's future has become the present, while the present is now the past--a past that will never be forgotten.

The hours of studying, the excitement of football games, the bonfire, the homecoming, the parties--they're all in the past. All we have left now are the memories of them and the anticipation of an equally memorable future.

We have written our page in the history of B. H. S. There will always be a place in our hearts for BELTON HIGH and all the memories it holds for us.

After graduation is over, each of us will take a separate walk of life, but with each of us will go the memories of a wonderful senior year.

Football Sweetheart—Sammie Killingsworth

During pre-game ceremonies, Sammie Killingsworth was crowned Football Sweetheart at the Lockhart game. She was presented a bouquet of red roses by football captain, Otis Coufal. The football team nominated Sammie, Peggy Pittman, and Linda Young by secret ballot. Sammie received the honor by majority vote. Serving her school and community, she is president of Teen Council, a member of the Latin Club, and a majorette of the Marching 100.

The Backbone of the Team—the Coaches

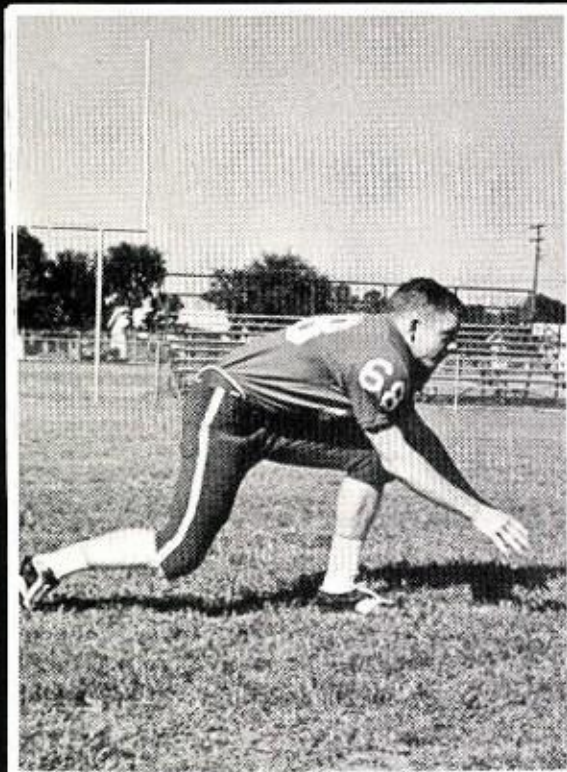

SPIKE DYKES - Athletic Director and Head Coach

Dear Daddy,

Right now we think as much about our activities as we do about our classwork, and we know that both are important for our future adjustment in life. We know that your job is to provide the best faculty and educational facilities possible to ensure for us a well-rounded education. Thank you for working hard for these things for us.

Dr. Lowe addresses student body from the stage of our new auditorium.

Dear Daddy,

We know that your first duty is to guard the academic excellence of our high school curriculum. We have been told by our teachers all along how important a good background is for our future education, and now that we are seniors we are beginning to think more seriously about this matter. Thank you for caring about our future when we didn't and at the same time finding time to supervise our unending list of extra-curricular activities.
